

Footmen Club 35th Anniversary Cocktail Party - July 14, 2011

Held at "All Smiles Café" in Ringwood East, 50 Footmen Club members and guests enjoyed convivial company and reminisced about the past 35 years and, the exciting times ahead for the Footmen and the Footmen Charitable Trust.

Top left: MCC Councillor, Natalie Thomas with Footmen Committee members, Jim Yarra and Steve Atchison

Above: Julienne, partner of Russell McNeil and, Judy Wright

Left: Former member, Jenny Hopwood with Life Member, Jean Dowling and Russell McNeil

Above left: Footmen Grants Committee Chairman, Graeme Edwards, presents a cheque for $5000 to Mr. Geoff Marsh, founder and CEO of Elishacare, for their continuing work with the disadvantaged youth and adults in central Croydon.

Above right: Footmen Life Member, Lorraine Bambrough-Kelly and Footmen President, Paul McPherson, enjoying the birthday cake.

Melba Support Services Co-Ordinator of Community Relations, Judy Duff, congratulating the Footmen Club on the 35th Anniversary and, reiterating the strength of the relationships existing between the Melba Centre and the Footmen Club

Monica Murphy, wife of late Footmen Life Member, Norm Murphy, cuts the celebratory birthday cake, surrounded by Life Members, Lal Duo, Jean Dowling, Daryl Stephens, Ashley Crow, Lorraine Bambrough-Kelly and Tony Wright

